By Tim Chang

The speech club (NFL) is entering the UCLA National Qualifying Tournament this Friday and Saturday. It is undoubtedly the most important tournament this year, because the winners will go to Albuquerque, N.M. for national competition.

South High will send its top three debate teams. Entering in individual events are John Gerhardt and Lee Pearce, boys' extemporaneous speaking; Marcy Mendelson, girls' extemporaneous speaking; Rick Schwartz, original oratory; Barbara Bingham, oratorical interpretation; and Kathy Kimes, dramatic interpretation. Lettuce all wish them luck.

Here we go again! Don't miss the Senior Class Dance this Friday from 8 until 11:30 p.m. According to Jim Scharf, senior class president, "This is the biggest thing to hit South since the Battle of the Bands! Music will be by the famous Chapter VI, comple-

Science Fair Set At West

Public viewing of the districtwide high school science fair has been set for Thursday and Friday, according to Dr. Bruce Magner, curriculum consultant for the Torrance Unified School District.

Viewing hours will be from 7 until 9 p.m. Thursday and from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. Friday at the West High School gymnasium, 20401 Victor St.

The fair will feature 74 exhibits prepared by students at the city's four high schools. Winners, to be selected Thursday afternoon, will be honored at ceremonies set for 7:30 Thursday evening.

Categories to be judged will feature biological and physical exhibits and research briefs. A new category for novices will be tagged "for display only" and will not be considered for a wards.

The fair will mark a departure from former years in that only work of high school students will be displayed. A separate fair for elementary school pupils will be held in May.
